REPORT FROM THE EXECUTIVE OFFICER

REPORT FROM THE EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Gail McMahon, Executive Officer, reported she and Vice-Chairperson Linda Vaughan attended the California Schools Personnel Commissioners Association (CSPCA) conference. She reported the conference was very informative and one of the highlights of the weekend was having lunch with Mrs. Charles Acosta and her granddaughter who attended the conference luncheon to accept the Dr. Schuyler C. Joyner Award on behalf of former Commissioner Charles Acosta who was given the award posthumously. Ms. McMahon informed the Commission planning for the 2013 CSPCA conference is underway with the possible venue being in Long Beach or Orange County.

Ms. McMahon reported staff participated in a webinar showcasing Neogov's performance evaluation system. She reported that although it was a good system with many tools and mechanisms which could be useful, it still has some items that need developing and ultimately is too expensive for consideration at this time.

Ms. McMahon asked the Personnel Commission unit managers and supervisor to give an update of their respective unit activities.

Dale Culton, Certification Services Manager, reported he and Mary Cates, Human Resources Supervisor, attended the Middle School and Kindergarten through 8th grade school secretaries meeting to introduce the new Vacancy Assignment (VA) procedures for coaches. He noted the new VA is sport specific. Valeeta Pharr, CSEA Chapter 2 President, thanked staff for working on the form as many sites sent coach information to the Volunteers in Public Schools desk and this new VA clarifies the process. Mr. Culton also reported, two days of interviews have been scheduled to fill a number of permanent Instructional Aide – Special positions.

Ms. Cates informed the Commission that the new summer school employment application is ready and will be posted on the Personnel Commission website and distributed to all sites by Monday, February 6th. She also reported fingerprinting of Better Learning After School Today (BLAST) mentors will take place through March 7th with Commission staff scheduled to fingerprint approximately 225 mentors.

Marilyn Balmer, Personnel Analyst, reported new bilingual examinations have been created to focus on dialogue and types of translations necessary for specific classifications. The bilingual examinations will be specific to the following categories; clerical/secretarial, instructional aides, student evaluation technicians and translators. Ms. McMahon reminded the Commission the review of the examinations was as a result of an inquiry from CSEA as they had received calls from employees who did not feel comfortable translating for Individualized Education Plan meetings even though they were classified as bilingual and expected to do so. The new bilingual examinations will give the applicant a better understanding of what types of bilingual work may be expected of them and give the sites employees who are able to perform the bilingual duties of their positions.
